Jane's Walk: Camp 30 / Jury Lands Walk (former WWII PoW Camp)

Date and Time: Sunday, May 6 11:00 a.m. - 12:30 a.m.

Event Location: 151 Sprucewood Crescent, Bowmanville

Ehrenwort Trail ("Ehrenwort" means "word of honour") is a one-kilometre walk through the historic grounds of the former Boys Training School and PoW Camp 30 campus, now a National Historic Site. During WWII, it was used by the Allies to house captured high-ranking German officers. It is the only known PoW camp in Canada with intact buildings dating from that era.

Over time, the buildings have been vandalized by people trespassing on the site. The Jury Lands Foundation, Architectural Conservancy of Ontario Clarington Branch, the Municipality of Clarington, and other interested groups have been working with the site owners to protect and interpret the site. The Walk Leader will explain the history of the site and will also update you on the most recent plans that are being developed to turn it into a park for all to enjoy.

Led by members of the Architectural Conservancy of Ontario, Clarington Branch.

Note that the route may include curbs and steps, and uneven trails and terrain. Dogs welcome!

Meet at 151 Sprucewood Crescent, Bowmanville. Parking on street or at John M. James School, 175 Mearns Avenue.

Pink Tea

Date and Time: Saturday, May 12 10:45 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Event Location: Parkwood National Historic Site

Join us Saturday May 12, 2018 for Afternoon Tea as we celebrate all women with a Pink Tea. The pink tea tradition developed over a century ago when women throughout Canada used pink teas to engender solidarity among female suffragists. The subversive afternoon teas, aka suffrage meetings, were executed in hype-feminine guise, often featuring "frilly decorations" such as pink doilies and rose-coloured everything, lending itself to be avoided by men. The Parkwood Pink Tea will pay homage to the idea of the original "polite pekoe party" with a presentation by our curator on the inventive means that industrious women adopted to further this cause.

The event will feature a raffle and our curator's talk, a lovely catered Afternoon Tea of delicious gourmet petite sandwiches, scones, clotted cream, and of course, tea!

Celebrating strong women who paved the way is a beautiful way to enjoy afternoon tea on Mother's Day weekend with an important woman in your life, and we hope you will join us for this wonderful afternoon.

Please feel free to wear your finest hat!
