Taking Stock – How is Your Maker Business Really Doing?

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 2 9:30 am - 12:00 pm

Address: Webinar

Every business owner should analyze the performance of her business midyear. This is particularly important for Makers. The third and fourth quarter have the greatest impact on the sales of a maker business. This workshop will help Makers to determine how to best prepare for the most lucrative periods of the year. The workshop will lead participants through an in-depth analysis which will identify sales drivers and revenue drains. In addition it will describe how to apply the results to adjusting your strategy for the balance of the year, especially the all-important Christmas season.

Main elements of the workshop:

- Identifying Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats
- Setting strategic priorities
- Translating strategy into actions
- What is in it for you?
- The workshop offers 3 main benefits:
- Up-to-date insight into the main structures of your business
- Meaningful adjustments to business strategy
- Optimization of sales and profits

Turning the 'New Normal' into a Big Win

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 3 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm

Address: Webinar

As part of the Durham Business Recovery Series, we have partnered with Andrea Bisenberger and Dustin Kellow from Durham HR Solutions (a division of Durham Recruiting) to share some key insights for business owners and leaders

RE: How the re-imagining of the workplace can be a HUGE opportunity for you!

Format:

- 20-25 minute overview of 5 key topic areas presented by Andrea and Dustin
- 40 minute Q&A / Open Forum with attendees

As we re-establish operations, businesses have an amazing opportunity to showcase their leadership and level up when it comes to employee engagement and inclusion. It has been widely proven that engaged employees are significantly more productive vs. disengaged and with businesses having to adjust and re-imagine their workplace, now is an excellent time to reset expectations and shine as leaders. We will share with you a roadmap that includes 5 key sequential steps your business could consider to turn this new normal from a negative into a major win for your entire business!

Areas that will be covered:

1. Ensuring you're prepared: Safety guidelines as per Ontario Government

2. Develop/implement/demonstrate new processes & policies to ensure safety
3. Communication strategy: To employees, clients/customers and vendors
4. Listen, Inspire and motivate: Working collectively, ask for feedback, provide feedback, assign team members to help facilitate changes
5. Prepare for Changes: Adapt and be flexible as new government guidelines are mandated. Prepare for Phase 2 and 3

A Zoom link to join this meeting will be sent in advance to registrants. Please plan to join ten minutes early to ensure your connectivity.

Leading Through Crisis and Adversity (Whitby Chamber Community Event)

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 9 8:30 am - 9:30 am

Address: Webinar

Recent events swirling around us that began almost 3 months ago have reminded us of a stark reality: we cannot escape crisis situations. Although unable to avoid them, we can learn to lead people through them. In fact, dark, difficult times may be the moments when leadership is needed the most.

While very few of us will ever be responsible to lead in the aftermath of a large-scale catastrophe, we all encounter times of intense difficulty within our organizations and our communities. By nature, a crisis urgently demands attention, and yet it can be difficult to know how to respond to sudden adversity.

Join a complimentary virtual discussion about the lessons John Maxwell shared on the pandemic COVID-19 crisis forcing leaders to lead through difficult times. You will learn to apply the lessons from John on understanding fear, seeing the big picture, and overcoming challenges.

Finance and Administration Committee Meeting

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 9 9:30 am

Digital Mindset Program: Customer Segmentation & Value Proposition

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 9 9:30 am - 12:00 pm

Address: Webinar

Business owners will identify their common customer profiles. Using Value Proposition Canvas, understand the pains (relieved) and gains (created). Calculate the high-level LTV for each customer profile.

How will this work: We will identify a customer segment that is common to all the participating businesses. This will help us to do some research on the target customer profile for the presentation.

Outcome: Each business will get a complete overview of the problems they solve for the customer and gains they create. Also, LTV will help them to understand the value of the customer for their business, which will help in determining the marketing budget for that customer segment.

Digital Mindset Program provides business decision makers with simple but highly effective tools to build their online business models. The program helps to learn the possible risks associated with the generating the customer-base, provides tools to quickly analyze the problems and design solutions, and set up key objectives and results to measure the success.

1855 Masterclass: 8 Ways to Reinvent Yourself in a Crisis

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 24 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: Webinar

1855 Whitby brings you the 6th Edition of 1855 MASTERCLASS, presented by Durham Region Economic Development.

A sought-after speaker, John has keynoted Fortune Magazine's Growth Summit, Entrepreneur's Organization New York City and Toronto Chapters, and the Inc. 5000 conference. He authored two bestselling books, Built to Sell: Creating a Business That Can Thrive Without You, recognized by both Fortune and Inc. Magazine as one of the best business books of 2011, and The Automatic Customer: Creating A Subscription Business in Any Industry. John also hosts Built to Sell Radio, ranked one of the world's 10 best podcasts for business owners. Founder of The Value Builder System, John has helped more than 47,000 business owners improve company value by 71%.

Join us for an exclusive online presentation of "8 WAYS TO RE-INVENT YOURSELF IN A CRISIS".

As Winston Churchill once said, "a crisis is a terrible thing to waste." When everything falls apart, it can be a chance to take stock and remodel your company. In a current climate of isolation and economic downturn, John will walk you through a simple tool on how to identify areas of business to cut and where to invest your time right now. He will also share case studies of other Founders who have pivoted in a time of crisis. On June 24, you will leave this session with clarity as to your next steps and with the energy to get it done. Stick around after John's talk for some online networking to follow and all guests will receive a copy of John's latest e-book as our way of saying thanks.
