Art Exhibition: prayers for a word (or a lack that builds the world) by Joshua Vettivelu

Date and Time: Friday, March 4 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, 143 Simpson Ave, Bowmanville, ON

February 4 - March 6, 2022, weekends only, Friday - Sunday, 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Joshua Vettivelu's installation, prayers for a word (or a lack that builds the world) presents hundreds of slowly melting castings of their grandmother's hands, made out of beeswax infused with 'Ceylon' cinnamon.

Vettivelu's research investigates how the language we use to understand ourselves is informed by the material conditions that surround us. Prayers for a word (a lack that builds the world) connects the material history of the spice trade with the psychic impact of European missionary work to explore how frameworks of redemption and salvation have been used to ensure enthusiastic labour and unfettered access to resources.

The installation is intentionally housed in the Visual Art Centre of Clarington, recalling its role as a decommissioned barley mill. The building was constructed in 1905 for the processing of grits and barley, later revitalized into a hub of cultural production by the Town of Newcastle in 1976. In collaboration with Nicolas Fleming and Andreas Buchwaldt, Vettivelu refigures the VAC's architecture into a factory that continually produces and destroys something that is simultaneously material and immaterial, public yet deeply private.

Artist talk: prayers for a word (or a lack that builds the world)

Date and Time: Saturday, March 5 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, 143 Simpson Ave, Bowmanville, ON

Join us on an artist-led tour and talk with Joshua Vettivelu as they discuss their exhibition prayers for a word (or a lack that builds the world) on Saturday, March 5, 2022. This final installment of Public Space, curated by Matthew Kyba, features hundreds of castings of the artist's grandmother's hands, created using beeswax infused with 'Ceylon' cinnamon.

Vettivelu's research investigates how the language we use to understand ourselves is informed by the material conditions that surround us. Prayers for a word (a lack that builds the world) connects the material history of the spice trade with the psychic impact of European missionary work to explore how frameworks of redemption and salvation have been used to ensure enthusiastic labour and unfettered access to resources.

The installation is intentionally housed in the Visual Arts Centre of Clarington (VAC), recalling its role as a decommissioned barley mill. The building was constructed in 1905 for the processing of grits and barley, later revitalized into a hub of cultural production by the Town of Newcastle in 1976. Prayers for a word (a lack that builds the world) is the last iteration of the VAC's collaboration-based exhibition Public Space. In collaboration with Nicolas Fleming and Andreas Buchwaldt, Vettivelu reconfigures the VAC's architecture into a factory that continually produces and destroys something that is simultaneously material and immaterial, public yet deeply private.

Please note that Joshua Vettivelu will also be leading an artist talk from 12:00 - 2:00 pm for visitors registered to arrive by shuttle bus (registration required). The gallery will be closed to other guests during this time. If you require transportation from Toronto, we encourage you to register for the free shuttle bus to attend the first artist talk of the day. Workforce Summit 2.0: Winning the War for Talent (Toronto Region Board of Trade)

Date and Time: Tuesday, March 29 9:00 am - 4:30 pm

The Toronto region is the fastest growing urban area in North America and has become a centre for the world's top talent. But the impacts of the pandemic – including remote work, increased burnout, immigration barriers and everyday stresses – have disrupted established workforce patterns. Organizations are now in a war for talent across all industries and skill levels, struggling to retain and attract the workers they need to succeed. The talent pipeline that our future depends on is in jeopardy, and the actions we take today will determine our region's trajectory.

With this in mind, the second annual TRBOT Workforce Summit will assemble business and thought leaders to get to the root of these monumental challenges and unlock solutions to leverage the global talent pool and identify what organizations need to do to win.

Startup Grind with Saleema Khimji, Entrepreneur and Innovation Leader

Date and Time: Thursday, March 31 10:00 am - 11:30 am

Join Spark Centre at Startup Grind on March 31st as Founder of the MicDrop Agency, Katie Zeppieri, sits down with Entrepreneur and Innovation Leader, Saleema Khimji!

Armed with a legal background and IP and partnerships expertise, Saleema has a global career that spans multiple continents and disciplines including her role as Chief Innovation Officer for MCI Onehealth Technologies Inc.. Having learned first-hand that the best innovations come from the cross-pollination of information and insights from diverse industries and people, Saleema has a thorough understanding of creating synergy across cultures, verticals and geographies, making her a highly sought-after thought leader and speaker in the innovation space.

From how she “walked the walk” when it comes to patents and nurturing technologies through the development life cycle and how she co-invented an AI-based sensor technology for pharma and medical applications to her passion for mentoring young women in STEM and more, this is a Startup Grind you won’t want to miss!

How An Online Store Can Boost Your Business: Free Ontario Program (Digital Main Street)

Date and Time: Thursday, March 31 11:30 am - 12:30 pm

How an Online Store Can Boost Your Business: Free Program Funded by the Province of Ontario and corporate partners

The goal of ShopHERE powered By Google is to build and optimize online stores for small independent businesses and artists in just a matter of days. With ShopHERE, businesses get to expand their selling opportunities into the online market.

When I sign up with ShopHERE, what do I get?

- An e-commerce store customized with your information, theme, logo and branding
- Hands-on assistance setting up and launching your online store
- Additional training to support your online store including topics like digital marketing, shipping and inventory management
- Access to free tools to help support the successful launch of your online store

In this webinar you will get the answers to the top questions we’ve received about the ShopHERE program, including:

- Who is Digital Main Street?
- What is ShopHERE?
- What does it mean to sell online, and why should my business?
- Do I qualify for this program?
- What are the costs involved?
- Do you have any examples of completed websites?
