10 Ways to Successfully Market Your Business on a Shoestring Budget (Digital Main Street)

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 2 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Address: Webinar

Everyone knows that they need to market their business, but not everyone knows how to do so in a way that makes money instead of wasting it. With all the tools available to modern marketers, it's hard for small businesses to know where to invest their time and money with marketing, and how to tell whether it's working or not.

Marketing, if done right, can help ramp up sales, generate masses of new customers, and create an entirely new revenue stream for your business. If done well, it can become a painful and embarrassing waste of time and money that leads to a lot of frustration and very few results.

In this interactive Q&A, we'll cover 10 ways that you can market your business, so that you can market with intention and confidence.

Business PR Strategies (Digital Main Street)

Date and Time: Wednesday, February 24 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Address: Webinar

Publicity is an incredible way to bring more attention and customers to your business. And it's also a strategy that every single business owner can use regardless of their skill set or experience.

Unlike marketing, PR allows you to tap into audiences that are much larger than your own and allows you to create an instant connection to customers who are right for your brand.

In this online interactive Q&A, we'll discuss how any business can start getting free publicity, and help you answer questions you have that are specific to generating publicity for your own business.

Join us for a short presentation on:

- How to get free publicity for your business
- How to create community initiatives to help build your brand
- How to create a community around your business

Followed by a Q&A

- We'll discuss some of the unique challenges small business owners are facing and how to deal with them
- You will get the opportunity to have your questions answered by entrepreneurs who understand the challenges you're going through

Snap a Selfie with Sculpture

Date and Time: Friday, February 26 5:00 pm

Address: 650 Kingston Road P.O. Box 18258 Steeple Hill Postal Outlet

PineRidge Arts Council is encouraging Durham residents to get out of the house and see the art around them. From simply visiting a local sculpture for the first time, to planning a grand tour to see all, the timing and choice of locations are open. In COVID times, this is a safe way for Durham residents to get out doors, socially distance and be part of this fun initiative. Some players might like to follow a sculptor's work throughout Durham and some may want to hold a competition with family and friends.

To join in the game, photos can be shared on facebook <https://www.facebook.com/groups/pineridgearts> and Instagram #sculpturesofdurham. Each month, PRAC will award the photographer of the best liked photo on Instagram $50.

List of over 70 public outdoor art forms can be downloaded https://pineridgearts.org/forms/locations_SculpturesOfDurham.pdf

Tea & Talk from Home: Oshawa's Black History - One Family's Story

Date and Time: Sunday, February 28 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm

Address: 1450 Simcoe Street South, Lakeview Park, Guy House

Archivist, Jennifer Weymark, explains how the Oshawa Museum learned about one of the first Black families in Oshawa.

This lecture traces the lives of one of Oshawa's first Black families. We follow the matriarch Wealthy as she travels from Vermont to Lower Canada and finally Upper Canada. Four generations of this family, living everyday lives, have exposed the biases and prejudice of the time, but also the strength and courage of conviction they had.

This is an online event via Zoom.
