This documentary transports viewers back to Toronto's Varsity Stadium in 1969, when a gutsy and visionary pair of concert promoters barely out of their teens, tries to create a music festival featuring the original rock and roll bands from the 1950s. The concert was almost cancelled, until a last minute request to John Lennon and Yoko Ono saved the festival, turning it into "the second most important event in rock & roll history." The film features appearances by John Lennon, Eric Clapton, Chuck Berry, Little Richard, Jerry Lee Lewis, Bo Diddley, Gene Vincent, The Doors and Alice Cooper.

Following the screening, we will have a Q&A with industry insiders, the awards ceremony, drinks and nibbles. Dance and schmooze at the afterparty featuring the local favourite Lunar Circus Band.

Address: Regent Theatre Ontario Tech 50 King St E, Oshawa, ON L1H 1B3

Rescheduled from: December 20, 2021

Presented by: Blackrose Entertainment

It all began in the summer of 1984 when a band from Newmarket, Ontario called Tokyo spent two evenings opening for Boy George and Culture Club at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens. Their dynamic, original sound captured the moment of the mid 80's and they soon became a major force in suburban high schools and the Ontario club circuit. When a record deal was finally signed with Capitol Records, Tokyo officially became Glass Tiger.

With Jim Vallance (Bryan Adams; Aerosmith; Ozzy Osbourne) behind the boards, Glass Tiger was immediately introduced to the recording studio to work on their first album. 'The Thin Red Line' set a record for being the fastest selling debut recording in Canadian history, going gold within weeks of its release. As well as a Grammy nod for 'Best New Artist' in 1986. To date, this album has received four Platinum records in Canada and went Gold in the United States. One of Glass Tiger's many hit singles "Don't Forget Me (When I'm Gone)" yielded a #2 spot on Billboard, followed by "Someday" reaching #5. Both songs made Canadian history with Glass Tiger winning successive Juno's a year apart for Single of the Year, from the same album.

Glass Tiger returns to the Regent by popular demand, having sold out in 2018. Tickets will sell quickly for this event, so don't miss out!

Parents - you know best what your kids enjoy for a good scare. We have seen kids age 5 and less who are fascinated and love the experience, and we have seen teens who can't make it past the clowns (oh yes, there will be creepy clowns folks!) We leave it to you to decide if its the right fit for your kids. We do also provide a "magic" word just before you enter; something you can shout out to scare the monsters back...a little bit.

<https://youtu.be/zZngU8kf85M>

A HUGE thank you to Watson Farms for their incredible support in hosting our monsters!

ABOUT TICKETS

- You purchase just 1 ticket for your entire group - For example:
- If you are 2 people, you buy one ticket for 2
- If you are a family of 4 and bringing one friend, you buy one ticket for 5
- Max group size is 6 people
- Tickets are sold online only for booked times
- Each time slot is for up to 6 different groups
- For example, people who buy tickets for 7:00 - 7:10pm would be Group 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 and Group 1 would enter the trail at 7:00pm, then group 2 would enter at 7:02pm and so on.
- Arrive at least 20 minutes before the start of your time - you have to get a Creepy Wagon ride to the maze!
- For example, if your booked time is for 7:00 to 7:10, you arrive by 6:40pm
- Discounted pricing starts at a group of 4
- When you buy a ticket you will receive it as an E-mail, and you need to bring that on your cell phone so that we can scan it to check you in.

IMPORTANT SAFETY ITEMS:

- The trail is NOT considered accessibility-themed. This is uneven ground, and while a wheelchair can fit through the width of the trail, wet weather and other conditions would make it difficult for persons needing any kind of mobility assistance device to navigate
- Please arrive at least 20 minutes before your booked time. This is very important! We cannot just "slip you in" if you are late and miss your time slot because it would throw everyone else off their time slot and that is not fair to them. You would not be able to enter and there is no refund for this.
- By booking times, we are keeping the number of people in line at a minimum, reducing your wait time to enter, and limiting risk of Covid concerns
- For your safety - there is no touching the monsters, pushing, crawling or running inside the maze
- This is uneven ground - watch your step inside the trail to avoid tripping on corn stalk stubs or bumpy ground.
- Loud sounds, strobe lights, fog and other special effects in use
- Port-o-Potties are near the exit of the trail

FLOYD FACTOR - THE PINK FLOYD EXPERIENCE

Date and Time: Saturday, October 22 8:00 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: Regent Theatre Ontario Tech 50 King St E, Oshawa, ON L1H 1B3

Presented by: Blackrose Entertainment

Floyd Factor, Canada's most authentic and passionate tribute to Pink Floyd. Incredible accuracy, richly layered vocal harmonies, and intense instrumental performances make this a must see & hear experience "for Pink Floyd fans, by Pink Floyd fans."

The Floyd Factor Principle:

Floyd Factor exists to reproduce the very best material of rock's most transcendent band - Pink Floyd - recreated where it was meant to be heard, live in concert. Developing since 2006, Floyd Factor is a live time capsule in sound & vision. The band's show is a living bootleg, a channeling of the precision, passion, and the sheer power of Pink Floyd's most legendary music. Using authentic vintage-era equipment, the sound of Pink Floyd is deftly recreated in amazing note-for-note detail. The band's sound has been referred to as "uncompromisingly Floyd", although the music is all reproduced organically, created entirely by the players onstage.

What makes this close-knit group really special is their chemistry, that can make the air crackle with anticipation, then joy, as you see and hear the sparks of Pink Floyd's history-making genius coming back to life, in a way that you might not have in a very long time...

Mudmen Return! The #1 Celtic Rock band in Canada!

Always entertaining and definitely unique, The Mudmen are a blast of Celtic energy whose members are known to be characters both on and off the stage. First discovered in 1993 as "The Campbell Brothers", the band signed a record deal with EMI Records and changed their name to "Mudmen" in 1998. Their music has been featured in video games, NBC's "The Black Donnellys", WWE, Don Cherry's Rock' em Sock' em hockey videos, and the list goes on and on.

In 2008 the Campbell Brothers were asked to perform on the new "Hockey Night in Canada" theme song produced by the iconic Canadian music producer, Bob Rock. Ron MacLean said to the nation "Mudmen we love em!!!". This led to many opportunities including a 3 month tour with Johnny Reid, and a performance at the Canadian Country Music awards. The Mudmen/Campbell Brothers have appeared twice on the nationally televised Canada Day celebrations from Capital Hill, where they performed and shook hands with the Queen! With over 3000 shows to date, The Mudmen, consisting of Robby & Sandy Campbell, Colin Amey, Jordon Brosseau, Andy Gingerich and Alex Showdra, believe that nice guys can finish first, all while enjoying life!
