STEVE HILL- The One-Man Blues Rock Band!

Date and Time: Saturday, October 13 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: Regent Theatre, Oshawa

Steve Hill —“the most spectacular one-man band on the planet”—is touring in support of his critically acclaimed Steve Hill: The One-Man Blues Rock Band. Released May 11, the album immediately shot to number one on the blues charts on iTunes Canada. An overnight sensation 20-plus years in the making, he is now being recognized as an ambitious and raucous force on the Canadian and international blues-rock scene, picking up an impressive load of hardware, including a JUNO for Blues Album of the Year, and multi Maple Blues awards for Electric Act of the Year, Guitarist of the Year, Recording/Producer of the Year and Entertainer of the Year.

When it comes to one-man bands, this guitarist and singer-songwriter extraordinaire knows no limits. As highreviews.com writes, “The man not only sings with such a raw, barbed vocal style underpinned by a deliciously handled guitar, he also comes loaded with two kick drums, a hi-hat cymbal—played by virtue of the stick attached ingeniously to the machine head of his guitar—and, on occasion, a harmonica.”

“Unfathomable that a single musician can possess that much talent.” - Rock and Blues Muse.

“Steve Hill's rise can only be described as stratospheric!” - Manchester Rock

“...the top star on the Canadian blues scene right now” - Bob Mersereau, CBC

“If you love Blues based rock and you’ve never heard of Steve Hill, I guarantee you will become a fan after you hear his music.” - Dedicated Rocker

Come see what all the buzz is about!

Uxbridge Celebration of the Arts presents Cadence

Date and Time: Saturday, October 13 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: Uxbridge Music Hall, 16 Main St. South, Uxbridge ON, L9P 1H1

The stage lights fall, the crowd goes quiet, and four harmonious voices rise up and fill the air. The melodies unfurl into something both familiar and fresh. What comes next may be a classic song by Joni Mitchell or Louis Prima. It may be an old bebop standard or cheeky arrangement of a 1980s hit. But these are arrangements like you’ve never heard them before—containing all the richness of a full band, but performed using just four voices.

This is Cadence, Canada’s three-time JUNO Award nominated vocal group! Based in Toronto, this a cappella ensemble has been wowing audiences across the country and around the world for nearly 20 years. Whether performing at sold-out jazz clubs and concert halls, at music festivals, or for educational outreach, the members of Cadence bring an infectious energy and uncanny verve to every song they sing.

Cadence’s live shows are always a hit. They feature a hypnotic blend of complex harmonies, intricate arrangements, vocal dexterity, and just plain fun. On-stage antics and audience participation are par for the course at any Cadence show, but so too is a mesmerizing display of musical genius. What these boys can do with their voices needs to be heard to be believed.

Public Lecture by Gwynne Dyer - The Populist Revolt: Its Causes and Cure

Date and Time: Wednesday, October 17 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Regent Theatre

Author, historian and independent journalist Gwynne Dyer is coming to the University of Ontario Institute of Technology to discuss his latest book, Growing Pains: Surviving the Populist Wave, in a public lecture entitled The Populist Revolt: Its Causes and Cure.

This talk is the latest instalment of the Faculty of Social Science and Humanities' Dean's Public Lecture Series.

According to Dyer, nationalism is back, and it's very angry. In Europe, the driver of the populist revolt is immigration. In the United States job losses are really the big issue. However, U.S. President Donald Trump has no solution for automation, and more extreme populists may come after him unless the anger is extinguished.

The main political task for the next generation will be to ensure those without work have an income they can live on, and don't lose their self-respect. How do we achieve this? One idea under consideration is the Universal Basic Income.

Les Stroud (Survivorman)

Date and Time: Friday, October 26 8:00 pm - 11:30 pm

Address: St. Francis Centre, 78 Church Street South Ajax L1S 6A8

As the host of the Discovery Channel's Survivorman, Les Stroud entertained viewers with his immersive approach to the wilderness, but the Canadian-born Stroud also spreads his nature-first message via music, releasing his own albums of guitar and harmonica-based blues, folk and rock songs.

Les Stroud has made a powerful name in the world of documentary film making, indeed starting an entirely new genre of TV, yet he comes by his music honestly. Since the age of fourteen Stroud has been writing songs and studying musically. At 23 his music was being shopped to the likes of Bruce Springsteen and was a published songwriter with RCA/BMG music.

Les Stroud has been nicknamed the “Hendrix of harmonica” for good reason. Though his personal training comes from studying traditional blues harmonica of Sonny Terry, Sonny Boy Williamson, James Cotton and Junior Wells, he quickly moved towards listening to powerhouse players such as Paul Butterfield, Billy Branch, Jason Ritchie, Mike Stevens and Jerome Godboo. It was then that he knew he would need his own signature sound. It is said Les plays the ‘harp’ like he’s playing a guitar and to watch him live is awe-inspiring.

Musically, Stroud has shared the stage with Slash, Journey, Jonny Lang, James Cotton, Steve Stevens, Alice Cooper, Steven Stills, Tommy Shaw, Robbie Krieger, Blues Traveler, Tesla, Jakob Dylan, Randy Bachman, Chicago, Montgomery Gentry, Lynyrd Skynyrd and The Roots.

FAQs

I want to bring a group, can I buy multiple tickets and can we all play on the same teams?

Yes, simply buy as many tickets as you require. Each team is ideally 4 players. We will assign teams & ice sheets on the night of the event, and do our best to keep groups together. Buy a block of 8 tickets to have the whole sheet to yourself.

I don't have enough players to form a team, can I still participate?

Yes! Social curling is all about trying new things and meeting new people. For groups less than 4 people, we will match you with others to form a team.

Are there ID or minimum age requirements to enter the event?

Yes you must be 19 years of age or older. We are also hosting a family friendly event earlier in the day. Check our other events for details.

Does the club serve alcohol?

Yes, we have a fully stocked bar staffed by smart serve bartenders. Please note that alcohol is not permitted on the ice, nor will intoxicated players be allowed onto the ice.

Can I just show up, and pay in person at the club on the night of the event?

Walk ins will be welcome assuming there are open spots. Similar events have sold out, so the best way to ensure your spot is to buy tickets in advance. Don't worry, you can cancel up to 24 hours before the event for a full refund if something comes up, or transfer your ticket to someone else.
