Cash Flow Management Strategies

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 2 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Address: Webinar

Cash Flow is the number one factor that decides the success and longevity of a business. A mediocre business with well managed cash flow will always outlast a great business that manages cash flow poorly.

Many good business owners ignore cash flow because they think it's complicated or cumbersome. But understanding your cash flow actually allows you to have much more freedom, while at the same time reducing unpredictability and anxiety in your business operations.

One of the most effective steps you can take towards creating a more successful and resilient business is starting to understand and manage your cash flow today.

The Role of Foreign Investment in Canada's Economic Recovery (Canada Chamber of Commerce)

Date and Time: Monday, December 7 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm

Address: Webinar

Foreign investment plays a critical role in the Canadian economy by supporting domestic jobs and the creation of physical and knowledge capital across a range of industries. The need to attract foreign capital is critical to support our economy's recovery from COVID-19. However, given Canada competes for capital investment against other countries it is critical for us to offer a competitive market that makes a compelling business case for companies and investors. Join Emilio B. Imbriglio, President and CEO of Raymond Chabot Grant Thornton, Malcolm D Bruce, CEO of Edmonton Global, and Laurel C. Broten, President and CEO of Nova Scotia Business Inc., to discuss how Canada can compete in a world shaped by COVID-19 in order to remain attractive for foreign investment. This event will be moderated by Ian McKay, Chief Executive Officer of Invest in Canada.

Using real talk for farm transition success (Farm Credit Canada)

Date and Time: Thursday, December 17 12:00 pm

Address: Webinar

The average age of a Durham region farmer is 58 years old - and most don't have a transition plan. And while our family farms are getting better at compromise, it can only happen with candid, transparent communication.

Join Merle Good, a transition expert, to learn about the importance of transition planning, how to start one and how real talk can benefit your farm and family.

What you'll learn:

- Honouring the equity of the previous generation – and the aspirations of the next one
- Using tax and legal strategies with roles, responsibilities, business structures and estate planning to achieve inter-generational clarity
