Trans/mission: Barley-Corn-Maize

Date and Time: Friday, November 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, ON., L1C 3K8

Trans/mission: Barley-Corn-Maize is Ron Benner's mixed media installation in response to the mill as a producer of barley. Benner has devoted his artistic career to researching the economics of food and the impacts of contemporary industrialized food systems. His installations often offer visual accounts of his extensive investigation to trace back the root origin of our food and finding its migration rooted in colonialism and imperialism. Concerned with seed circulation and farming methods, local community and globalization, Benner's work provides a unique and critical perspective on essential elements of modern food systems.

Z'otz* Collective: Waiting Outside of My Hand

Date and Time: Friday, November 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, ON., L1C 3K8

Z'otz* Collective is comprised of Nahúm Flores, Erik Jerezano, and Ilyana Martínez. In their most recent work produced at the Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, Z'otz* Collective will investigate the concept of the niche as a point of departure. Waiting Outside of My Hand is an exhibition that explores the notion of a space “in which to nest”. A niche may be thought of as a recess or shadow box, to contain elements within a larger configuration. Using this as a point of departure, Z'otz* Collective produces contemporary niches in the form of boxes varying in size and strategically placed within a site-specific mural. Their niches will contain various objects sourced from the grounds surrounding the VAC. Each niche serves as a container of juxtaposed items that together suggest a narrative, forming an interconnected network of stories.

Ganaraska Region Conservation Authority's Owl Prowl

Date and Time: Friday, November 1 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Ganaraska Forest Centre, 10585 Cold Springs Camp Road, Campbellcroft ON, L0A 1B0

Join Ganaraska Region Conservation Authority (GRCA) education staff on an exciting evening prowling for owls in the Ganaraska Forest. Start the evening off with a presentation in the Great Hall at the Ganaraska Forest Centre before venturing out on the guided night hike in search of an owl or two.

Due to the late outdoor activity, all participants must be 8 years of age or older. Spaces are limited. Pre-registration is required by calling the GRCA at 905.885.8173.

Planning and Economic Development Committee Meeting

Date and Time: Tuesday, November 5 9:30 am

Social Selling with LinkedIn

Date and Time: Tuesday, November 5 9:30 am - 12:30 pm

Address: BACD, 3000 Garden St., Suite 200, Whitby

LinkedIn is one of — if not the — most effective social networks for selling.

While social media has valuable tools to learn more about your prospect's interests and personality, you need to warm them up before you reach out. LinkedIn is typically the only platform that directly leads to new business.

About the Presenter:

Shelly Patrick is the CEO and Founder of ThinkFlame, a marketing and branding agency that helps businesses increase awareness and lead generation through online media.

Registration is $45. Visit the Business Advisory Centre of Durham (BACD) website for more information: <https://bacd.ca/event/social-selling-with-linkedin/>.

Trans/mission: Barley-Corn-Maize

Date and Time: Tuesday, November 5 10:00 am - 9:00 pm

Address: Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, ON., L1C 3K8

Trans/mission: Barley-Corn-Maize is Ron Benner's mixed media installation in response to the mill as a producer of barley. Benner has devoted his artistic career to researching the economics of food and the impacts of contemporary industrialized food systems. His installations often offer visual accounts of his extensive investigation to trace back the root origin of our food and finding its migration rooted in colonialism and imperialism. Concerned with seed circulation and farming methods, local community and globalization, Benner's work provides a unique and critical perspective on essential elements of modern food systems.

Cinechats Film Festival

Date and Time: Thursday, November 7 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Room C-113, G. Willey Bld., UOIT/DC Campus, 2000 Simcoe St. N.

The Cinechats Film Festival is an acclaimed weekly (and year-round!) series of the best motion pictures from around the world. It's like TIFF, but right here in suburbia -- and without all the immodest hype. Instead, we have lively conversations after each film. To date, over 28,000 people have attended Cinechats, which is a not-for-profit community educational collaboration between Artsforum, the University of Ontario Institute of Technology (UOIT), Durham College, and the Durham Council for the Arts. (Trent University in Durham has also been a recent partner.) Cinechats was twice nominated for the region's Art of Transition Creative Award. Come see movies that will stir your emotions and make you think -- movies with award-caliber performances, movies for the artist in all of us. We've even had a world-premiere and some exclusive presentations of films before they were released commercially in North America. For more information, contact John at (905) 576-0359 or by email at : artsforum_magazine@yahoo.ca

It's Only a Play

Date and Time: Thursday, November 7 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: Whitby Courthouse Theatre - Whitby Centennial Building, 416 Centre Street South, Whitby

It's the opening night of The Golden Egg on Broadway, and the wealthy producer Julia Budder is throwing a lavish party in her Manhattan townhouse.

Downstairs, the celebrities are pouring in, but the real action is upstairs in the bedroom, where a group of insiders have staked themselves out to await the reviews.

The group includes the playwright; the unstable director; the pill-popping leading lady; and the playwright's best friend, who passed up this production for a television series.

Add to this a drama critic who's panned the playwright in the past and a new-in-town aspiring singer, and you have a prime recipe for the narcissism, ambition, childishness, and just plain irrationality that infuse the theatre — and for comedy.

Advisory: Adult language and drug use.

Rock the Rink!

Date and Time: Saturday, November 9 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Tribute Communities Centre

Featuring Tessa Virtue & Scott Moir, Patrick Chan, Kaetlyn Osmond, Elvis Stojko, Carolina Kostner, Jeremy Abbott and special musical guest Birds of Bellwoods

By the half-way point of last year's sold out Thank You Canada tour, it was clear to figure skating superstars, Tessa Virtue, Scott Moir and Patrick Chan, that they were far from done creating and developing a new style of skating entertainment. Conversations then began in earnest to focus on the next logical step.

Virtue and Moir appeared on CTV's Your Morning, to announce Rock The Rink – an annual tour that focuses on being more than a figure skating show. Combining the highest level of on-ice superstar talent with an ever-evolving touring production, Rock The Rink will produce the highest value of entertainment. This year – along with upgrades to lighting, video and interactive technology – live music will be introduced to the show, with featured special musical guest, Birds of Bellwoods. Rock The Rink will stop in Oshawa at the Tribute Communities Centre on Saturday, November 9, 2019 and tickets will go on sale Friday, May 3, 2019 at 10:00am at tributecommunitiescentre.com.

“Last year, we rode the Olympic wave and carried the momentum through the Thank You Canada tour – a fulfilling project that truly allowed us to connect with fans coast to coast,” says Virtue. “This year, it's critical that we elevate the production and generate authentic entertainment in new and creative ways. Scott and I have spent our career striving for more, taking risks, and daring ourselves to be better...our approach to this is no different.”

Adds Moir, “The goal for Rock The Rink is to be something that fans of skating and live entertainment will look forward to year after year, knowing that it will always be a can't miss night,” adds Moir.

“We want to give people a memorable experience and broaden the scope of what can be done in the skating realm,” continues Virtue. “We are ready for fresh and innovative ways to share our passion with audiences across the country!”

"I'm honored to be a part of such a unique and innovative production," reflects Chan. “Anyone that has followed our careers understands our dedication to creativity and entertainment. We want each and every person to be a part of an experience and not just a ‘show’. What we're creating hasn't been done before and I can't wait to show it to the fans."

The production will tour from coast-to-coast across Canada, and will include a few select U.S. cities as well. The cast will again feature Canadian greats, Tessa Virtue and Scott Moir, Patrick Chan, Kaetlyn Osmond and Elvis Stojko. The show will also be bringing some world-renowned skating talent from Europe and the U.S.. Italian Olympic Medalist and World Champion, Carolina Kostner will tour in North America for the first time, while Olympic Medalist and four-time U.S. National Champion, Jeremy Abbott, will return to Canadian touring for the first time in seven years.

Tickets will go on sale Friday, May 3 at tributecommunitiescentre.com, by phone at 1-877-436-8811 and in person at the Tribute Communities Centre Ticket Office. The cross-country tour launches Saturday, October 5 in Abbotsford, BC and will hit over 30 cities before wrapping in St. John's, NL. The tour, which is presented by Round Room, is proud of its continued relationship with Bell Media as the official tour media sponsor.

Cinechats Film Festival

Date and Time: Thursday, November 14 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Room C-113, G. Willey Bld., UOIT/DC Campus, 2000 Simcoe St. N.

The Cinechats Film Festival is an acclaimed weekly (and year-round!) series of the best motion pictures from around the world. It's like TIFF, but right here in suburbia -- and without all the immodest hype. Instead, we have lively conversations after each film. To date, over 28,000 people have attended Cinechats, which is a not-for-profit community educational collaboration between Artsforum, the University of Ontario Institute of Technology (UOIT), Durham College, and the Durham Council for the Arts. (Trent University in Durham has also been a recent partner.) Cinechats was twice nominated for the region's Art of Transition Creative Award. Come see movies that will stir your emotions and make you think -- movies with award-caliber performances, movies for the artist in all of us. We've even had a world-premiere and some exclusive presentations of films before they were released commercially in North America. Arkells

Date and Time: Thursday, November 14 7:30 pm - 11:00 pm

Address: Tribute Communities Centre

As Arkells prepare for their 2019 sold-out summer party show: "A Rally Cry Summer Night" this Saturday at Toronto's Budweiser Stage, the acclaimed rock-band have announced a new run of arena dates in support of their JUNO Award-winning album, RALLY CRY. Fans can expect the set to feature all the hits, plus Arkells' beloved Northern Soul Horns section along for the ride when Arkells return to Oshawa's Tribute Communities Centre on Thursday, November 14, 2019.

To follow what will be a summer of international and domestic festivals, Arkells frontman Max Kerman can't wait to get their arena show back to new cities in Canada, this fall: "We've developed a real bond with these communities over the years, so it was important to us to come back. Sometimes when we get out of the biggest cities, we find the rowdiest crowds. Those shows, and that energy, can be the most memorable. Rally Cry Tour = best tour."

Pre-sale access to tickets for Arkells "Rally Cry Tour" will be available to fans via Spotify's "Fans First" pre-sale, beginning at 10 AM local June 19th. Public on-sale will commence Friday, June 21 at www.livenation.com and www.arkellsmusic.com.

VIP fan experience packages, featuring Arkells meet & greet, pre-show acoustic set and additional perks will be available in both the pre-sale and public on-sale.

In honour of Pride Month, Arkells have partnered with PLUS1 so that $1 from every ticket sold will go to support Rainbow Railroad, an organization to help LGBTQI people around the world escape persecution and violence. www.rainbowrailroad.com. $16,000 has already been raised via the band's sold-out "Rally Cry Summer Night" show in Toronto this coming Saturday.

ACT - The Cemetery Club

Date and Time: Thursday, November 14 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: St. Francis Centre, 78 Church St. South, Ajax

This play is about three Jewish widows who meet monthly for tea before visiting their husbands' graves. The ladies meet Sam at the cemetery visiting his wife's grave. A budding romance between Sam and Ida is squashed by Lucille and Doris. Or is it?

It's Only a Play

Date and Time: Thursday, November 14 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: Whitby Courthouse Theatre - Whitby Centennial Building, 416 Centre Street South, Whitby

It's the opening night of The Golden Egg on Broadway, and the wealthy producer Julia Budder is throwing a lavish party in her Manhattan townhouse.

Downstairs, the celebrities are pouring in, but the real action is upstairs in the bedroom, where a group of insiders have staked themselves out to await the reviews.

The group includes the playwright; the unstable director; the pill-popping leading lady; and the playwright's best friend, who passed up this production for a television series.

Add to this a drama critic who's panned the playwright in the past and a new-in-town aspiring singer, and you have a prime recipe for the narcissism, ambition, childishness, and just plain irrationality that infuse the theatre — and for comedy.

Advisory: Adult language and drug use.

Trans/mission: Barley-Corn-Maize

Date and Time: Friday, November 15 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, ON., L1C 3K8

Trans/mission: Barley-Corn-Maize is Ron Benner's mixed media installation in response to the mill as a producer of barley. Benner has devoted his artistic career to researching the economics of food and the impacts of contemporary industrialized food systems. His installations often offer visual accounts of his extensive investigation to trace back the root origin of our food and finding its migration rooted in colonialism and imperialism. Concerned with seed circulation and farming methods, local community and globalization, Benner's work provides a unique and critical perspective on essential elements of modern food systems.

Paw Patrol Live! Race to the rescue!

Date and Time: Saturday, November 16 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: Tribute Communities Centre

It's the day of the Great Adventure Bay Race between Adventure Bay's Mayor Goodway and Foggy Bottom's Mayor Humdinger, but Mayor Goodway is nowhere to be found. PAW Patrol to the rescue! Ryder summons Marshall, Chase, Skye, Rubble, Rocky, Zuma and Everest to rescue Mayor Goodway and to run the race in her place. Using their unique skills and teamwork, the pups show that "no job is too big, no pup is too small," and share lessons for all ages about citizenship, social skills and problem-solving as they make several heroic rescues on their race to the finish line.

The show includes two acts and an intermission, and engages audiences with Bunraku puppetry, an innovative costuming approach that brings the PAW Patrol characters to life on stage with their vehicles and pup packs. The performance features up-tempo music and a cleverly written script that is a wonderful introduction to live theater for kids. Classic theatrical scenery, along with a high-tech video wall, visually transports families to an authentic PAW Patrol environment, including locations from the TV series, like Adventure Bay, The Lookout, Seal Island, Farmer Yumi's farm and Jake's Mountain. Special interactive video allows the audience to participate via interviews, solve clues with the Pups, follow Mayor Goodway and much more. Groups 10+ Save on tickets. Cinechats Film Festival

Date and Time: Thursday, November 21 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: Room C-113, G. Willey Bld., UOIT/DC Campus, 2000 Simcoe St. N.

The Cinechats Film Festival is an acclaimed weekly (and year-round!) series of the best motion pictures from around the world. It's like TIFF, but right here in suburbia -- and without all the immodest hype. Instead, we have lively conversations after each film. To date, over 28,000 people have attended Cinechats, which is a not-for-profit community educational collaboration between Artsforum, the University of Ontario Institute of Technology (UOIT), Durham College, and the Durham Council for the Arts. (Trent University in Durham has also been a recent partner.) Cinechats was twice nominated for the region's Art of Transition Creative Award. Come see movies that will stir your emotions and make you think -- movies with award-caliber performances, movies for the artist in all of us. We've even had a world-premiere and some exclusive presentations of films before they were released commercially in North America. For more information, contact John at (905) 576-0359 or by email at : artsforum_magazine@yahoo.ca

Durham Environmental Advisory Committee Meeting

Date and Time: Thursday, November 21 7:00 pm

It's Only a Play

Date and Time: Thursday, November 21 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: Whitby Courthouse Theatre - Whitby Centennial Building, 416 Centre Street South, Whitby

It's the opening night of The Golden Egg on Broadway, and the wealthy producer Julia Budder is throwing a lavish party in her Manhattan townhouse.

Downstairs, the celebrities are pouring in, but the real action is upstairs in the bedroom, where a group of insiders have staked themselves out to await the reviews.

The group includes the playwright; the unstable director; the pill-popping leading lady; and the playwright's best friend, who passed up this production for a television series.

Add to this a drama critic who's panned the playwright in the past and a new-in-town aspiring singer, and you have a prime recipe for the narcissism, ambition, childishness, and just plain irrationality that infuse the theatre — and for comedy.

Advisory: Adult language and drug use.

ACT - The Cemetery Club

Date and Time: Thursday, November 21 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: St. Francis Centre, 78 Church St. South, Ajax

This play is about three Jewish widows who meet monthly for tea before visiting their husbands' graves. The ladies meet Sam at the cemetery visiting his wife's grave. A budding romance between Sam and Ida is squashed by Lucille and Doris. Or is it?

Fireside Chat with WELL Health Technologies

Date and Time: Monday, November 25 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: Town Brewery, 1632 Charles St., Whitby

Join us as we chat with the founders of a multi-million dollar, organically grown MedTech Startup.

Introducing Sara Bond & Arjun Kumar, founders of KAI Innovations, a Whitby based SaaS company, who launched their business in 2012 which became the third largest Electronic Medical Records (EMR) user base in Ontario and the largest provider of Open Source Clinical Application Resource (OSCAR) services to healthcare clinics in the country. Their cutting edge technology transformed the service that over 2100 physicians in over 560 clinics were able to give to their patients. Over 10 million patients across Ontario were given the ability to use online booking systems and self-service check-in.

In June 2019, KAI Innovations was acquired by WELL Health Technologies- owner of the largest chain of clinics in Vancouver with a focus on technology, in a multi-million dollar deal. The company stood out to WELL Health technologies because of their strong IP portfolio and naturally not only did they acquire the company but also brought on Sara and Arjun into the fold as part of their senior leadership team. KAI's CEO, Arjun Kumar, became WELL's Chief Information Officer, while KAI's COO, Sara Bond, became a part of WELL's management team as the Senior Vice President of Product Development.

WELL Health Technologies (TSX.V: WELL) is a publicly traded company that has reached a market cap of over $150 Million in its first year of operations. WELL Health is backed by powerhouse investors including Mr. Li Ka Shing, a Canadian philanthropist who is not only the 30th richest person in the world he is also the richest person in Hong Kong.

Why should you attend?

Hear from frontline entrepreneurs leading the way in med tech and have the opportunity to ask them questions about the future of health

- Find out more on what it takes to grow a business worth over $10 million without raising capital
- Hear about both the pros & cons to an acquisition
- Take the opportunity to expand your network with entrepreneurs across the region
