Snap a Selfie with Sculpture

Date and Time: Thursday, April 1 6:00 am

Address: 650 Kingston Road P.O. Box 18258 Steeple Hill Postal Outlet

THIS IS A DURHAM REGION PROJECT - NOT LIMITED TO ONE MUNICIPALITY

PineRidge Arts Council is holding a Durham wide - Snap a Selfie with Sculpture contest on Instagram #sculpturesofdurham . We are encouraging people to get out of the house, have some fun in Durham, and take selfies with some or all of the over 70 outdoor public works of art in their neighbourhood. From simply visiting a local sculpture for the first time, to planning a grand tour to see all, the timing and choice of locations are open. In COVID times, this is a safe way to set an outdoor goal, socially distance and "see" the pieces that have been placed for our enjoyment. Some players might like to follow a sculptor's work throughout Durham and some may want to hold a competition with family and friends.

To join in the game, photos can be shared on facebook with @pineridgearts tag and Instagram #sculpturesofdurham. Each month, PRAC will award the photographer of the best liked photo on Instagram $50.

List of over 70 public outdoor art forms can be downloaded - we are updating it as we learn of them https://pineridgearts.org/forms/locations_SculpturesOfDurham.pdf

The contest will run until May 31, 2021.

Mayor's Task Force on Community Safety, Security & Well-Being (Oshawa Chamber of Commerce)

Date and Time: Thursday, April 1 8:30 am - 9:30 am

Address: Webinar

We are all part of the solution. Oshawa Mayor Dan Carter has announced the formation of a Task Force that brings together the Durham Regional Police Services (DRPS), Greater Oshawa Chamber of Commerce and other local stakeholders to identify and propose opportunities to address community safety, security and well-being issues facing the city.

Public Space

Date and Time: Thursday, April 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

Based around the theme of collaboration, artist Nicolas Fleming will collaborate with four invited artists on site-specific installations in the VAC's Loft Gallery through 2021. Each 2-month long artistic intervention is also designed to facilitate participatory, community-focused programming for underserved Durham Region groups and non-profit organizations.

100 years then and hereafter

Date and Time: Thursday, April 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, ON., L1C 2H9

100 years then and hereafter is an exhibition of new works by Canadian artist Hiba Abdallah. Inspired by her excavation of Clarington's historic archives, Abdallah looks back 100 years into the municipality's documented history, finding diary entries, political documents, and newspaper headlines with uncanny similarities to the present moment. With her findings as the grounds for the exhibition, she examines social and political cycles, while exploring ways to disrupt the archival process when looking to the future.

How An Online Store Can Boost Your Business: Free Ontario Program (Digital Main Street)

- Access to free tools to help support the successful launch of your online store

In this webinar you will get the answers to the top questions we've received about the ShopHERE program, including:

- Who is Digital Main Street?
- What is ShopHERE?
- What does it mean to sell online, and why should my business?
- Do I qualify for this program?
- What are the costs involved?
- Do you have any examples of completed websites?

Along The Trail: Everyday nature in Acrylic

Date and Time: Thursday, April 1 12:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 175 B Queen St

Lori Korkola's exhibition Along the Trail reveals the everyday beauty that we usually take for granted. The Canadian landscape of Lori's youth inspired this body of work. Hiking trails near and far, watching the sunlight move through the trees and bounce off water has allowed Lori to explore her art further. Lori's contemporary take on a traditional subject matter is a consistent process that involves aligning the theme and approach.

Along the Trail is a reflection of the wonder Lori feels when exploring the natural world around us. Visit the Scugog Arts Space between March 27th and April 25th and discover the joy of everyday nature as Lori sees it.

Scugog Arts is currently open Tuesday - Saturday from 12 pm to 5 pm.

Along The Trail: Everyday nature in Acrylic

Date and Time: Friday, April 9 12:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 175 B Queen St

Lori Korkola's exhibition Along the Trail reveals the everyday beauty that we usually take for granted. The Can adian landscape of Lori's youth inspired this body of work. Hiking trails near and far, watching the sunlight move through the trees and bounce off water has allowed Lori to explore her art further. Lori's contemporary take on a traditional subject matter is a consistent process that involves aligning the theme and approach.

Along the Trail is a reflection of the wonder Lori feels when exploring the natural world around us. Visit the Scugog Arts Space between March 27th and April 25th and discover the joy of everyday nature as Lori sees it.

Scugog Arts is currently open Tuesday - Saturday from 12 pm to 5 pm.

Happy Garden Workshop Series

Date and Time: Saturday, April 10 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: 270 Simcoe Street N

The Happy Garden Workshop Series

The Durham Master Gardeners will lead these four workshops geared to those who want to become successful home gardeners. The workshops will cover a range of topics all designed to provide the home gardener with the confidence and skills to become happy gardeners. Each participant will receive a certificate of completion at the end of the 4 week series.

Workshop 1

Introduction to Soils and Starting Seeds ~ Saturday, March 27

The first half of the workshop will provide you with an introduction to the components of soil. We will teach you some quick tests and techniques that you can do at home to understand and improve your soil.

The second part of this workshop will focus on seeds – how to start your garden from seeds, what equipment you need, when to start seeds and how to get your seedlings ready for planting in the garden. The hands-on component of this workshop will have each participant prepare and plant trays of seedlings for planting in the spring.

Materials

You will be asked to bring a soil sample from your home garden to test during the workshop. All other materials will be supplied.

Workshop 2

Introduction to Growing Vegetable and Herbs ~ Saturday, April 10

This workshop will provide both the novice and the experienced home gardener with the knowledge and tools to make them successful home vegetable growers. We will talk about the various types of vegetables, ways they are classified, and how to grow them. We will then move on to the types of vegetable gardens, garden design and layout, siting and exposure, and selecting what vegetables to grow. We will have several hands-on activities for the participants to do in designing and planting a square-foot garden.

In the second part of this workshop, we will talk about growing culinary herbs. We will introduce you to the many types of herbs you can grow in your home garden and their growing requirements. We will also cover harvesting and preserving your herbs for future use.

Workshop 3

Container, Balcony and Small Space Gardening ~ Saturday, April 17

In this hands-on workshop, we will provide you with the basic knowledge to start growing plants in containers or small spaces. From soils and potting mixes, to choosing containers and plants for your balcony or terrace, we will provide you with the know-how to get started in container and small space gardening. We will have a han hands-on activity to create salad bowl planters that can easily be started from seed.

Workshop 4

Introduction to Composting and Pollinators ~ Saturday, April 24

This workshop focuses on how easy it is to turn kitchen scraps and yard waste into rich, dark compost right in your own backyard. Learn the benefits of backyard composting; how to get started; and the ingredients you need to make it work. There will be a hands-on demonstration of a vermi-(worm)composter.

The second part of this workshop will talk about the importance of pollinators, why we need them, what the threats to pollinators are and what individual gardeners can do to support pollinators. We will also talk about the native plants that you can plant in your garden that will encourage pollinators to visit and take up residence. There will be a hands-on activity on how to build a mason bee nest.

100 years then and hereafter

Date and Time: Saturday, April 10 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, ON., L1C 2H9

100 years then and hereafter is an exhibition of new works by Canadian artist Hiba Abdallah. Inspired by her excavation of Clarington's historic archives, Abdallah looks back 100 years into the municipality's documented history, finding diary entries, political documents, and newspaper headlines with uncanny similarities to the present moment. With her findings as the grounds for the exhibition, she examines social and political cycles, while exploring ways to disrupt the archival process when looking to the future.

Cactus Workshop

Date and Time: Saturday, April 10 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: 270 Simcoe Street N

In this 2hr "Make & Take Workshop" you will utilize a variety of cacti to create a living centerpiece for your home or desk that you can enjoy all year round. Set in the Potting Shed of the newly restored Greenhouse complex, in an intimate group (8 adults) you will be guided by our Greenhouse Grower Assistant, who will provide her guidance and expertise. Your fees cover your container, 3-4 cacti, soil, and terrarium bar toppings (coloured sand, stones, etc)

If you have special items you would like included in your cactus centerpiece please feel free to bring them along. Aftercare will also be discussed before you leave.

Date and Time: Saturday, April 17 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: 270 Simcoe Street N

The Happy Garden Workshop Series

The Durham Master Gardeners will lead these four workshops geared to those who want to become successful home gardeners. The workshops will cover a range of topics all designed to provide the home gardener with the confidence and skills to become happy gardeners. Each participant will receive a certificate of completion at the end of the 4 week series.

Workshop 1

Introduction to Soils and Starting Seeds ~ Saturday, March 27

The first half of the workshop will provide you with an introduction to the components of soil. We will teach you some quick tests and techniques that you can do at home to understand and improve your soil.

The second part of this workshop will focus on seeds – how to start your garden from seeds, what equipment you need, when to start seeds and how to get your seedlings ready for planting in the garden. The hands-on component of this workshop will have each participant prepare and plant trays of seedlings for planting in the spring.

Materials

You will be asked to bring a soil sample from your home garden to test during the workshop. All other materials will be supplied.

Workshop 2

Introduction to Growing Vegetable and Herbs ~ Saturday, April 10

This workshop will provide both the novice and the experienced home gardener with the knowledge and tools to make them successful home vegetable growers. We will talk about the various types of vegetables, ways they are classified, and how to grow them. We will then move on to the types of vegetable gardens, garden design and layout, siting and exposure, and selecting what vegetables to grow. We will have several hands-on activities for the participants to do in designing and planting a square-foot garden.

In the second part of this workshop, we will talk about growing culinary herbs. We will introduce you to the many types of herbs you can grow in your home garden and their growing requirements. We will also cover harvesting and preserving your herbs for future use.

Workshop 3

Container, Balcony and Small Space Gardening ~ Saturday, April 17

In this hands-on workshop, we will provide you with the basic knowledge to start growing plants in containers or small spaces. From soils and potting mixes, to choosing containers and plants for your balcony or terrace, we will provide you with the know-how to get started in container and small space gardening. We will have a hands-on activity to create salad bowl planters that can easily be started from seed.

Workshop 4

Introduction to Composting and Pollinators ~ Saturday, April 24

This workshop focuses on how easy it is to turn kitchen scraps and yard waste into rich, dark compost right in your own backyard. Learn the benefits of backyard composting; how to get started; and the ingredients you need to make it work. There will be a hands-on demonstration of a vermi-(worm)composter.

The second part of this workshop will talk about the importance of pollinators, why we need them, what the threats to pollinators are and what individual gardeners can do to support pollinators. We will also talk about the native plants that you can plant in your garden that will encourage pollinators to visit and take up residence. There will be a hands-on activity on how to build a mason bee nest.

100 years then and hereafter

Date and Time: Saturday, April 17 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

100 years then and hereafter is an exhibition of new works by Canadian artist Hiba Abdallah. Inspired by her excavation of Clarington's historic archives, Abdallah looks back 100 years into the municipality's documented history, finding diary entries, political documents, and newspaper headlines with uncanny similarities to the present moment. With her findings as the grounds for the exhibition, she examines social and political cycles, while exploring ways to disrupt the archival process when looking to the future.

Public Space

Date and Time: Saturday, April 17 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

Based around the theme of collaboration, artist Nicolas Fleming will collaborate with four invited artists on site-specific installations in the VAC's Loft Gallery through 2021. Each 2-month long artistic intervention is also designed to facilitate participatory, community-focused programming for underserved Durham Region groups and non-profit organizations.

Along The Trail: Everyday nature in Acrylic

Date and Time: Saturday, April 17 12:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 175 B Queen St

Lori Korkola's exhibition Along the Trail reveals the everyday beauty that we usually take for granted. The Canadian landscape of Lori's youth inspired this body of work. Hiking trails near and far, watching the sunlight move through the trees and bounce off water has allowed Lori to explore her art further. Lori's contemporary take on a traditional subject matter is a consistent process that involves aligning the theme and approach.

Along the Trail is a reflection of the wonder Lori feels when exploring the natural world around us. Visit the Scugog Arts Space between March 27th and April 25th and discover the joy of everyday nature as Lori sees it.

Scugog Arts is currently open Tuesday - Saturday from 12 pm to 5 pm.

Artist Talk: Digging into Archives

Date and Time: Thursday, April 22 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: Online via Zoom

Join us on Zoom for an intimate discussion with artist, Hiba Abdallah, and archivist, Tamara Rayan. Moderated by curator, Sandy Saad-Smith the discussion will touch on some of the most compelling issues around the nature and meaning of the archive. Looking at the archive as a conceptual and physical space in which memories are preserved and history decided, the talk will explore questions around the ways in which we create, store, and circulate information.

Guest Archivist: Tamara Rayan

Tamara Rayan is a Palestinian settler, ARL/SAA Mosaic Fellow, and recent University of Toronto Masters of Information Studies graduate specializing in archives and records management. Anti-racist action and BIPOC representation within the archive has always been at the forefront of her archival work. She is the former co-chair of the UofT iSchool's Diversity Working Group and is a current Steering Committee Member of the Society of American Archivists - Archivists and Archives of Color Section. Her research interests are focused on the ways in which minority and marginalized groups document and preserve their cultural heritage in the face of social pressure, colonialism, assimilation, and political oppression.
