Address: Silver Heron Farm, 324 Wagg Road, Goodwood, Uxbridge

ELDOA with Alpacas! Experience the health benefits of ELDOA stretching with the serenity of being in a quiet country location outdoors surrounded by fuzzy alpacas! Throughout your session, alpacas will be quietly grazing around you and then enjoy some time after your class interacting with them and feeding them treats (provided). What is ELDOA? ELDOA is a revolutionary stretching and strengthening technique for the spine and joints of the body. These exercises create space between every level of your spine, your hips and shoulders, to alleviate back pain and improve your overall posture. ELDOA is for everyone, from kids, seniors, athletes, desk bound workers, weekend warriors, pregnant women, and those with pain. ELDOA can be adapted to every human. Benefits of ELDOA: ELDOA connects your body, mind and spirit through a series of techniques designed to have a calming effect on the nervous system. The primary goal of ELDOA is to increase space by decompressing (decompression) the specific joint. There is an ELDOA for every joint in the body. Each class will begin with some breath work followed by a fascial-based joint by joint warm up to ready the body for the poses. Following that, Lauren will lead you through a selection of ELDOA postures ending with a final relaxation. Modifications will be given to accommodate every level. Book one class or save by booking for the whole of June (can receive discount still after 1st class).

Saint Asonia Live at the Biltmore Theatre

Date and Time: Thursday, June 20 7:00 pm - 11:55 pm

Address: 39 King Street East, Oshawa

MODO-LIVE, Biltmore Theatre & Programme present...

Saint Asonia

w/ Special Guests

By turning inward, Saint Asonia amplify every element of their signature sound. Skyscraping hooks soar higher, while arena-ready rhythms rattle harder. The guitars cut deeper, and the lyrics resound louder than ever. The quartet—Adam Gontier [vocals, guitar], Mike Mushok [lead guitar], Cale Gontier [bass], and Cody Watkins [drums]—find power and strength on their aptly titled 2022 EP, Introvert [Spinefarm Records].

Saint Asonia initially united two hard rock luminaries under a new banner. Respectively, Adam and Mike had each reached stratospheric heights in Three Days Grace and Staind, toppling charts, packing venues, and selling millions of records. As such, their union captivated audiences worldwide. In the wake of their 2015 self-titled debut Saint Asonia, Loudwire christened the band its “Best New Artist” at the Loudwire Music Awards.

Lighthouse burst on the scene in 1969, with an explosive sound that defied all conventions. Between 1970 and 1973 they were awarded four Junos, four gold albums and Canada's first platinum album for Lighthouse Live! While hits such as One Fine Morning, Sunny Days, Hats Off to the Stranger, 1849 and Pretty Lady raced to the top of Canadian and International charts.

As the first fusion band, their unique blend of rock, jazz and classical influences rocketed them to the forefront of musical trends. They were the first rock band asked to headline the Newport, Monterey and Boston Globe Jazz Festivals; the first to perform with Symphony Orchestras and the first to collaborate on a Rock Ballet. Lighthouse was the only act invited to perform a second night at the legendary 1970 Isle of Wight Festival among acts that included The Who, Miles Davis, Joni Mitchell, Chicago and The Doors.

From 1970 to 1976 Lighthouse toured three hundred days a year across North America with an emphasis on Canadian concerts in the cities, towns and small hamlets of every province. Indeed, it's hard to find a person who lived in Canada through the 1970s who didn't see the group live. They were Canada's band. Reunited in 1992, Lighthouse continues to tour regularly featuring original founders Paul Hoffert and Ralph Cole leading an all-star line-up that includes original members Russ Little and Steve Kennedy with Chris Howells, Simon Wallis, Doug Moore, Don Paulton, Jamie Prokop and dynamic lead vocalist Dan Clancy.
