Address: Regent Theatre - 50 King St. E Oshawa

Presented by: Ontario Philharmonic

Franz Joseph HAYDN's fullness, richness and majesty are on display, in all parts of Symphony No.104 "London." A prodigious composer, Haydn wrote more string quartets than Mozart and Beethoven combined - and a staggering 104 symphonies! Here we proudly present his final symphonic masterpiece. • Brazilian-Canadian composer Maria-Euarda MENDES MARTINS is in apt company with her work “Echoing Mendelssohn”, merging the past with the present in an echoing pattern. Pulse, energy and modern influences imbue this piece.

Felix MENDELSSOHN takes his place on a high pedestal in this compelling wrap up. Mendelssohn’s Symphony No.3 “Scottish” is a treasure among orchestral works of the 19th century, a work capturing the immensity and darkness of Scotland with its distinctive culture.

We are pleased to welcome guest conductor, Maestro Eckart Preu in his Canadian debut performance.

Address: The Second Wedge Brewing Co., 14 Victoria Street, Uxbridge

Calling all experienced and budding artists and creatives: Join us for our Drink and Draw sketch jam every other Thursday evening! Come on over – you can practice your craft among friends here too!) Bring your own supplies. Drop-ins are welcome! About your host: From time to time, John Allen is seen backed into a corner sketching at the Wedge. He's an avid sketchbook keeper always having several going at any one time. He sees it akin to an artist's physical training program. Designing for TV/film and new media demanded him to swap his pens for a mouse, and despite his passion for staying current with the latest digital tools, he maintains the practice of hand sketching for a variety of reasons, not least for the pure joy of it.

Date and Time: Saturday, March 16 8:00 pm - 11:00 pm

Address: 16 Main Street South, Uxbridge

Studebaker John's career has spanned six decades with tours across Europe and the United States. With over 20 albums released, he's one of Chicago's most legendary blues musicians.

Studebaker John Grimaldi was born in an Italian American section of Chicago and started playing harmonica at age 7. Under the spell of the music he heard on Maxwell Street, Chicago's famed blues melting pot, Grimaldi began performing as Studebaker John and the Hawks in the '70s. The band referenced the Studebaker Hawk, a car Grimaldi still owns today, and was also intended as a tribute to his friend, J.B. Hutto and the Hawks. John began playing guitar after a life-changing experience of seeing Hound Dog Taylor and the Houserockers perform. "...Hound Dog started playing, hitting notes that sent chills up and down my spine. He was versatile and powerful and would play rhythm as well as leads. I left there knowing what I wanted to do. I had to play slide guitar." S

Studebaker John Grimaldi was born in an Italian American section of Chicago and started playing harmonica at age 7. Under the spell of the music he heard on Maxwell Street, Chicago's famed blues melting pot, Grimaldi began performing as Studebaker John and the Hawks in the '70s. The band referenced the Studebaker Hawk, a car Grimaldi still owns today, and was also intended as a tribute to his friend, J.B. Hutto and the Hawks. John began playing guitar after a life-changing experience of seeing Hound Dog Taylor and the Houserockers perform. "...Hound Dog started playing, hitting notes that sent chills up and down my spine. He was versatile and powerful and would play rhythm as well as leads. I left there knowing what I wanted to do. I had to play slide guitar." About your host: From time to time, John Allen is seen backed into a corner sketching at the Wedge. He's an avid sketchbook keeper always having several going at any one time. He sees it akin to an artist's physical training program. Designing for TV/film and new media demanded him to swap his pens for a mouse, and despite his passion for staying current with the latest digital tools, he maintains the practice of hand sketching for a variety of reasons, not least for the pure joy of it.
