A LUNCH AT ALLEN'S CHRISTMAS

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 20 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: Regent Theatre - 50 King St. E Oshawa

Presented by: Shantero Productions

MURRAY McLAUHLAN, CINDY CHURCH, MARC JORDAN and IAN THOMAS

A Lunch At Allen's Christmas is an enchanting seasonal journey filled with stories, humour and a vast array of superbly-crafted songs – some traditional I'll Be Home for Christmas, others thought-provoking, Marc's Sober Up For Christmas, many familiar, like Murray's Old Tin Star and Ian's Zuzu's Petals – creating a bluesy, jazz, pop synergy that warms the heart and soothes the soul. The true essence of Christmas!

Lunch At Allen's is a musical powerhouse comprising four internationally renowned Canadian talents: Murray McLauchlan, Cindy Church, Marc Jordan and Ian Thomas. While songs like Murray's Farmer's Song, Marc's Marina Del Rey and Ian's Painted Ladies form our collective life soundtrack, as individuals, these artists have also penned hits for Bon Jovi, Josh Groban, Chicago, Bonnie Raitt, America, Santana, Cher, Diana Ross and Rod Stewart. The icing on the Lunch At Allen's cake, however, is the expressive, poetic voice of Cindy Church (Quartette, Great Western Orchestra) ... together their familiarity and camaraderie, their exquisite harmonies and sheer volume of combined musical talent adds up to a delectable evening's entertainment.

Crown Lands: 10:30PM

*Presented By: BOND|ST Event Centre in association with 94.9 The Rock

Crown Lands are born storytellers, with eyes on this world and others. Painters of strange, absorbing universes. Advocates for the LGBTQ+ and indigenous communities. Counter-culturalists for the 21st century, informed by a cocktail of old-world thinking, science-fiction, and musical narrators from Rush to Paul Simon, Led Zeppelin to John Prine. It's prog rock, but not as you know it – or as you thought it could be.

Though still in their twenties, Crown Lands have profound ties to history. The enigmatic brainchild of singer/drummer Cody Bowles and guitarist/keyboardist Kevin Comeau, the band channels ancient spirits into fantastical stories. All of it tempered with current issues, and all of it as a duo.

“I think the wow factor of Cody and I pulling this shit off, as two people, is something we have to maintain in the live show,” Comeau reasons. “We can still pull a lot of this shit off live with no tracks, no trickery and no additional members.”

Since meeting in 2015 at a band audition – where they bonded over a love of prog icons Rush – the leonine-haired pair have thrived on a diverse mix of ideas and activity. Sprawling conversations over walks in the woods.

Urgent odes to the mistreatment of their country's Indigenous peoples (captured in 2020 single "End Of The Road"). Slapstick jokes over movies and Indian food. Cultural touchstones that include the worlds of J.R.R. Tolkien, Dune author Frank Herbert, Buddhist meditation master Chögyam Trungpa and the Flash Gordon and Terminator soundtracks. All the while, heaps of riffs were amassed.

"We don't really do a lot in solitude for this band," Comeau says. "When I'm alone and making music, it's synth music, kind of like Vangelis or Tangerine Dream or John Carpenter. And when Cody's on their own, Cody's playing all these amazing flutes these days, and that's a whole other world. But when we come together, it's like, what would Pink Floyd do if they jammed with Rush? It's a different kind of headspace."
