100 years then and hereafter

Date and Time: Saturday, May 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

100 years then and hereafter is an exhibition of new works by Canadian artist Hiba Abdallah. Inspired by her excavation of Clarington's historic archives, Abdallah looks back 100 years into the municipality's documented history, finding diary entries, political documents, and newspaper headlines with uncanny similarities to the present moment. With her findings as the grounds for the exhibition, she examines social and political cycles, while exploring ways to disrupt the archival process when looking to the future.

Public Space

Date and Time: Saturday, May 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

Based around the theme of collaboration, artist Nicolas Fleming will collaborate with four invited artists on site-specific installations in the VAC's Loft Gallery through 2021. Each 2-month long artistic intervention is also designed to facilitate participatory, community-focused programming for underserved Durham Region groups and non-profit organizations.

Selling in today's environment has to be different. Consumer habits, needs and wants are changing and how we approach our customers are changing with it.

In this program, business coach David Cohen will emphasize the E-Q-S-P approach. EQSP translates to: E for empathy, Q for questions, S for client solutions, & P for patience and passion, especially during uncertain times. Thinking long term and nurturing relationships with your clients is vital but it is equally important to have a healthy dose of patience to succeed at selling.

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

Based around the theme of collaboration, artist Nicolas Fleming will collaborate with four invited artists on site-specific installations in the VAC's Loft Gallery through 2021. Each 2-month long artistic intervention is also designed to facilitate participatory, community-focused programming for underserved Durham Region groups and non-profit organizations.

100 years then and hereafter

Date and Time: Friday, May 14 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Ave., Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

100 years then and hereafter is an exhibition of new works by Canadian artist Hiba Abdallah. Inspired by her excavation of Clarington's historic archives, Abdallah looks back 100 years into the municipality's documented history, finding diary entries, political documents, and newspaper headlines with uncanny similarities to the present moment. With her findings as the grounds for the exhibition, she examines social and political cycles, while exploring ways to disrupt the archival process when looking to the future.

Scugog Compost Event

Date and Time: Saturday, May 15 8:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: Scugog Community Recreation Centre, 1655 Reach Street, Port Perry

Residents may fill up to four (4) blue boxes with compost. Please bring your own shovel.

Green bins, blue boxes and backyard composters will be available for sale (Debit or e-Transfer only, no cash).

Damaged blue boxes and green bins may also be exchanged for new ones free of charge. While supplies last.

Masks are required. Physical distancing in effect.

Dance for Durham

Date and Time: Saturday, May 15 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: Online

On May 15, 2021 Arthur Murray Dance Centres in Ajax will be hosting Dance for Durham, an evening of fun and dancing (virtually, of course) to say thank-you to our front line workers and also to raise money for Feed the Need Durham.

The charity:

Feed the Need in Durham provides fresh, nutritious food and non-perishable goods to emergency food providers across Durham Region. Our belief is that hunger should not be the reason to prevent anyone from the chance to fulfill their potential. Help us to collect, rescue & distribute as much food as possible to those who need it most.

Since March 2020 and the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, FTND has seen a 30% increase in food bank usage and a 20% increase in emergency meal program visits across our network. Your donation will affirm the value you place on alleviating food insecurity in Durham Region throughout the coming year.

Our Silent is now live and will run until the end of our event on May 15th. We would appreciate receiving items and information by April 20th.

We are really hoping you can help us and the people of Durham and, of course, we hope you can join us on May 15th for a fun evening of entertainment and DANCING!

Be My Guest: Food ethics with Elaine Tin Nyo

Date and Time: Sunday, May 16 12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

Pair this talk with potstickers and cocktail

Conceptual artist, writer and cook Elaine Tin Nyo invites you for a virtual visit to a rustic french cooking school (The Kitchen at Camont) to chat about our complex relationship with our non-human relatives: pets, domestic livestock, zoo animals and wild animals. How do they define us? Why are some so cute? Why are some so delicious?

Be My Guest brings together artists, writers, and curators who will speak about community, spirituality, and ethics through mediated engagements with food and drink pairings. Registrants will receive instructions for gathering the ingredients in order to prepare the recipes.

Please register online in advance to receive the food/beverage recipe paired with this discussion.
