“On Ice Entertainment are delighted to be working with the New York Islanders again and thank them for this opportunity. The City of Oshawa has a fantastic hockey history and we welcome the chance to be included,” said

John Graham, President of On Ice Entertainment.

“Oshawa, home to the Oshawa Generals Hockey Club and 2015 Memorial Cup Champions, has created many hockey legends,” stated Oshawa’s Mayor, John Henry. “This event will bring today’s heroes of hockey to the Tribute Communities Centre, Durham Region’s premier sports and entertainment facility, located in Downtown Oshawa.”

“The New York Islanders are excited to host a game in Oshawa, Ontario, one of Canada’s true hockey communities,” New York Islanders President and General Manager Garth Snow said. “The Oshawa community is one of the most passionate markets in hockey, so we can’t wait to have our players take the ice in front of them. The Ontario Hockey League has developed young prospects into NHL players for years, including several Islanders players who played for the Generals, such as John Tavares, Cal Clutterbuck, Calvin de Haan, Michael Dal Colle, Mitchell Vande Sompel and goaltending coach, Fred Brathwaite. I look forward to seeing a sold-out Tribute Communities Centre for our game against the Buffalo Sabres.”

Members of the Tribute Communities Centre’s Backstage Pass Cyber Club and Oshawa Generals Season Ticket Holders will have access to presale tickets starting Wednesday, December 6, 2017 at 10:00am, until Sunday, December 10, 2017 at 10:00pm. Tickets go on sale to the public on Monday, December 11, 2017 at 10:00am. Tickets can be purchased at www.tributecommunitiescentre.com, by phone at 1-877-436-8811 and in person at the ticket office.
