Canadian Police Curling Championship

Date and Time: Sunday, April 7 9:00 am - 6:00 pm

Address: Whitby Curling Club - 815 Brock Street, Whitby

The 67th Canadian Police Curling Championship is a week-long event that will be held April 6 - 13, 2024 in Whitby. The competition mirrors the Tim Horton's Brier as well as the Scotties Tournament of Hearts in that teams from across the country compete in provincial/territory championships to qualify for one of twelve spots in the national championships. This will be the ninth time since the Championship began in 1956 that the event will be hosted in Ontario. The teams will play an eleven- game round-robin, followed by a page playoff format that determines the national champion.

Fun Fact: In 1985, the Whitby Curling Club also hosted this same event. The Championship Team from 1985 will be returning again this year as Team Canada. (Prov of BC)

The Canadian Police Curling Association (CPCA) is non-profit; hence we must raise funds through sponsorship to fund the national. The host committee is solely responsible for the funding of their event. Equally important for each host committee is to be able to make a substantial donation to the CPCA 'charity of choice' Tourette Canada.

This National Championship brings police officers from across Canada to Ontario. The host committee is striving to ensure that we proudly promote the Region of Durham, the sport of curling and our various Police Services. This is an amazing opportunity to build partnerships with fellow police officers across Canada, community members and local stakeholders that we serve and protect daily.

Our desire is to promote health and wellness through; curling, comradery and relationships amongst officers and community by hosting the best Championship we can! We hope to provide our guests with incredible memories and life- long friendships.

No Mud, No Lotus: Exhibition of Work by Cheryl Rock

Date and Time: Sunday, April 7 11:00 am - 5:00 pm

Address: Scugog Arts Space, 175B Queen Street, Port Perry, Scugog

In "No Mud, No Lotus," I explore the complex relationship between struggle and beauty, drawing inspiration from the enduring metaphor of the lotus emerging from the murky depths of a muddy environment. Through my art, I delve into the transformative power of adversity, highlighting how overcoming challenges and hardships, and remembering who you are, serve as the fertile ground from which resilience and growth flourish. Using a subtractive process, and a variety of media, I capture the essence of this metaphor, inviting viewers to contemplate their journeys of growth and self-discovery. Each piece reflects the complex interplay of darkness and light, chaos and harmony, inviting viewers to embrace the inherent beauty in life's imperfections. By showcasing the inherent beauty in life's challenges, "No Mud, No Lotus" serves as a reminder that our healing and joy are essential, as we discover inner power, uncovering the extraordinary beauty and strength that lies within us all.

Show & Share

Date and Time: Sunday, April 7 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Address: 1450 Simcoe Street South, Guy House

If you have a paper artefact or document to share, join us for the first Show & Share event at the Oshawa Museum on Sunday, April 7, from 1 – 3 p.m. in Guy House!

Simply sign up for a timeslot in the gift shop upon arrival. Participants have 5 – 10 minutes to present and answer questions about their artefact and can chat afterward if there is time. Museum staff members moderate and time this program. This event is free, but donations are accepted. Space is limited.

It is not an opportunity to leave potential donations for the archives or collection.

No Mud, No Lotus: Exhibition of Work by Cheryl Rock

Date and Time: Saturday, April 13 11:00 am - 5:00 pm

Address: Scugog Arts Space, 175B Queen Street, Port Perry, Scugog

In "No Mud, No Lotus," I explore the complex relationship between struggle and beauty, drawing inspiration from the enduring metaphor of the lotus emerging from the murky depths of a muddy environment. Through my art, I delve into the transformative power of adversity, highlighting how overcoming challenges and hardships, and remembering who you are, serve as the fertile ground from which resilience and growth flourish. Using a subtractive process, and a variety of media, I capture the essence of this metaphor, inviting viewers to contemplate their journeys of growth and self-discovery. Each piece reflects the complex interplay of darkness and light, chaos and harmony, inviting viewers to embrace the inherent beauty in life's imperfections. By showcasing the inherent beauty in life's challenges, "No Mud, No Lotus" serves as a reminder that our healing and joy are essential, as we discover inner power, uncovering the extraordinary beauty and strength that lies within us all.

Salon of the Refused

Date and Time: Saturday, April 13 1:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Address: Robert McLaughlin Gallery, the Lookout

You are invited to attend a literary event that takes its inspiration from the 1863 Salon des Refusés. It is a celebration of writing that was initially rejected. It is also a celebration of marginalized communities who often feel rejected by mainstream society. The authors will present works of poetry or prose that went unrecognized when first submitted to either a literary journal or competition but whose power and beauty will be evident to those in attendance.

Jenny's House of Joy - Ajax Community Theatre

Date and Time: Saturday, April 13 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 78 Church St. South, Ajax

Jenny's House of Joy - a Norm Foster Comedy

Jenny runs the best little house of ill-repute in her corner of the old Wild West. When a tireless young runaway comes begging for a job, the girls at Jenny's house might just have to leave their lingerie behind. A delightful new comedy about the oldest profession.

: St. Francis Centre, Ajax

: April 12 to 20
