Fossilized Sunshine

Date and Time: Sunday, September 5 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 143 Simpson Avenue, Bowmanville, L1C 2H9

Fossilized Sunshine brings together the work of 7 artists who explore the relationship between cultural archeology and decolonial future building. Through the exploration of different “counter futurisms” including Afghan, Palestinian, Indigenous, and Afro-Futurism, each project employs polyphonic communities’ artefacts and their respective cultural histories as the building blocks to imagine diverse fictional realities divorced from Eurocentric subjugation.

Drive-in screening: Window Horses and At the Bottom of the Sea

Date and Time: Thursday, September 9 06:00 pm - 10:00 pm

For our second last drive-in screening of the season, DRIFF highlights two remarkable films which reflect on Asian heritage as they chart journeys of defiance and self-discovery.

Our feature presentation, Window Horses: The Poetic Persian Epiphany of Rosie Ming, is a dazzling animated film depicting the coming-of-age of a young Canadian poet travelling through Iran.

In collaboration with the DRIFF team, Window Horses director Ann Marie Fleming has personally selected Caroline Soo Jung Lee's short film At the Bottom of the Sea to open the evening.

Artefact Care in the Library

Date and Time: Thursday, September 9 06:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 270 Simcoe Street N

Have you ever given a thought to how the modern staff of Parkwood clean the Estate? The preservation techniques and equipment used to ensure the material culture of the past, the artefacts, last for the next 100 years? In this intimate hands on event of the Library, Parkwood fans will get up close and personal as they learn to clean the decorative woods, polish decorative metals, surface clean upholstery, with our Curator while learning about the specific museological concerns associated with the Library, the book collection and the uniqueness of Parkwood as a site. At the conclusion of the event there will be light refreshments such as water and lemonade to quench your thirst from all your cleaning!

Social Media for Small Business: Online Webinar (The Ontario Digital Main Street Initiative)

Date and Time: Thursday, September 9 07:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Social media can be a very powerful tool for business growth, but first you need to know what it is and how it works. In this fun and interactive workshop, we'll look at the basics of today's popular social media channels—including Facebook, YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, and Pinterest—and decide which are right for you. You'll develop a social media plan that will drive business results without a big investment of time and energy.

You'll learn:

- How other small businesses have built their brands on each social media channel, picking up tips and inspiration for your own social media activities

- What likes, hashtags, shares and retweets are, and how and when to use them
- How to determine the right content and tone for your business's social media posts, and the right time and frequency to post them
- How to develop an editorial calendar, with tips for scheduling and automation
- How to analyze social media metrics and determine which ones to focus on for your business goals
