

75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE LIBERATION OF HOLLAND & THE END OF WW2

A presentation by author and journalist
Ellin Bessner

As Canada and indeed, the world, marked the end of the fighting, hundreds of Canadian airmen and soldiers were still hard at work overseas with a new humanitarian mission. From the small gestures like donating red lipstick to the survivors to taking Jewish orphans on picnics, many Canadians in uniform were deeply involved in the rescue operations. Hear about some of the most famous Jewish Canadians who served, including Monty Hall, Wayne and Shuster, Sen. David Croll, Barney Danson, and more.
